

Due to the increasing needs within our setting, it is important that we create a strategy in order to support the needs of our children whom are displaying Social, Emotional Mental Health difficulties. We need to ensure that the whole team around the child understands the difficulties, how they should be dealt with and how to move things forward.

If the child has not responded to the systems in the behaviour policy, we need to support them from a SEND approach:

